

SPRING 2026 FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE
A&S, UNDERGRADUATE BUSINESS, LEADERSHIP STUDIES
Exam day/date and time based on class meeting time and days

Final exams must be offered as scheduled on the University's published final examination schedule. While instructors may offer additional times for students to take an exam (if a suitable space is available), these must be optional, and the exam must also be offered at the originally scheduled time. The same policy applies to those activities that may replace final exams in some courses, including presentations, tests, oral examinations, etc.

- All School of Professional and Continuing Studies courses follow the SPCS exam schedule and must be taken as scheduled.
- Students who have more than two examinations scheduled on the same day should contact their instructors and request to move one of the exams. If after consulting instructors there is no resolution, students should contact their college dean.
- No classes and no examinations are to be held during study periods.
- The examination for one section of a multi-section course may be taken in another section if the instructor is the same for both sections and gives permission.
- Except for the cases described in the notes below, students are to take final examinations as scheduled. No rescheduling, excuse for absence and/or provision for making-up final examinations will occur without the approval (in writing) of the college dean. Such approval shall be made only for illness certified by a physician, participation in authorized University activities, and/or personal emergencies such as death in the family.
 - Students wishing to observe religious holidays should follow the procedures specified in the University catalog.
 - Self-scheduling of final examinations in A&S classes is allowed at the option of the instructor and only in upper-level courses which have only one section.
 - A&S classes may not have a final exam during the last week of classes.
