- M or MW classes = MWF time, T or R classes = TR time.
- 500-level courses have the final examination at the regular class period during exam week.
- All School of Continuing Studies courses follow the SCS exam schedule and must be taken as scheduled.
- Students who have more than two examinations scheduled on the same day, first check with your instructors. If, after consulting your instructors you still have a problem, see your dean.
- No classes and no examinations are to be held during Study Periods except for Wednesday, April 28 which will be reserved for late exams for graduating seniors
- The examination for one section of a multi-section course may be taken in another section if the instructor is the same for both sections and gives permission.
- Except for the Special Note below, students are to take final examinations as scheduled. No rescheduling, excuse for absence and/or provision for making-up final examinations will occur without the approval (in writing) of the dean of the student's school (A&S students-see residential dean). Such approval shall be made only for illness certified by a physician, participation in authorized University activities, and/or personal emergencies such as death in the family.
- Special Note for Graduating Seniors: Students with classes where exams are scheduled for either Monday, May 3 or Tuesday, May 4 will need to take those exams on Wednesday, April 28 to ensure that final grades can be submitted by the 9:00 am due date on Monday, May 3.
